Advancing Global Benefits.*

Who We Are

The Silicon Valley Employers Forum (SVEF) is the only global association focused on employee benefits in the high-tech industry. Founded in 1994 as a 501(c)(6) non-profit organization, SVEF comprises over 70 global employers, including some of the most progressive and leading companies in technology, employing over 2.4 million people across 115 countries.

Our Mission

SVEF impacts the evolution of global benefits through plan designs and administration, sharing and educating about innovative ideas, and partnering with companies to promote beneficial social change.

What We Do

SVEF facilitates the sharing of benefits practices to enable our members to strategize, optimize, and manage programs in support of their employees and family members.

Key Services:

- Collaboration: We connect members and facilitate the sharing of best practices that enable beneficial social change.
- Insights: Benchmarking data and real-time ad hoc surveys.
- Events & Networking: Exclusive conferences, summits, roundtables, and member-only meetings.
- Consulting: Expert guidance for projects, peer connections, and global strategy.
- Professional Development: Growth through our Learning Academy, Lunch & Learn educational series, and podcasts.
